

ALPINE GOLF

Amid the impressive mountain scenery, the forests and the sweeping view of the historical town of Radstadt, golf lovers savour every stroke on the very carefully-tended 18-hole championship golf course, the 9-hole academy course and the expansive covered driving range.

Radstadt Golf Academy is run by two head pros, Hans-Peter Bacher and Alfred Rogy, and offers assistance to golfers of all skill levels. Both pros are members of the PGA (Professional Golfers Association) and have completed the additional training for '1Star Professional' status.

Choose from the following 4-night 'Alpine Golf' instruction package programmes:

3-DAY 'GOLF BASICS' COURSE FOR BEGINNERS

The 3-day golf basics course for beginners is ideal for learning the rudiments of the game. On the second day of the course you have permission to play on the authentic 9-hole academy course to practise your first swings – and to experience the fascination of golf at first hand.

- ✓ 16 x 25-minute instruction units for 3 persons and more (for 2 persons 12 units, for 1 Person 8 units)
- ✓ 3-day driving range fee
- ✓ 2x green fee on the 9-hole academy course
- ✓ Practice balls during the instruction period
- ✓ Golf clubs – hired for 3 days

3-DAY ADVANCED SKILLS GOLF COURSE

The 3-day advanced course for players with a course permit or even a golf handicap. Long shots, chipping, pitching, bunker shots and putting are all trained methodically. Subsequently, video analysis of technique reveals what to work on – and you get to play on the 9-hole academy course.
