60. Radstädter Gardefest

The Radstädter Bürgergarde, a uniformed privileged rifle company that can look back on more than 700 years of tradition, has been organizing the well-known Radstädter Gardefest for 60 years. The festival will be opened on Friday with the traditional boomer shooting and the marching in of the city band, the honorary companies, the clubs and the guests of honor in the festival tent. In the marquee, a top-of-the-line musical program is provided on all three days of the festival to ensure that there is no boredom among our festival visitors. More information on
